5. Financial Terms & Conditions

- The Parent/Guardian undertakes to pay in full all Fees and Expenses in respect of the student which are incurred while the student attends Glenstal Abbey School. All Fees and Expenses must be paid on or before the specified payment date(s).
- The signatory (signatories) on the student's enrolment form accepts responsibility for all monies due. Liability is joint and several for two signatories.
- A deposit is payable when an offer of a place in the school has been accepted. The deposit is not refundable if the student does not take up a place at the school, or if the student leaves the school before the completion of Sixth year (or the current year in the case of one year students).
- Fee accounts must be kept up to date in order to secure the student's place in the school.
- There is no remission on fees for absences (e.g. ill-health, work experience, exchanges or personal projects).
- There is no remission on fees if residential boarding is withdrawn by the school for behavioural reasons.
- There is no remission on fees for unexpected school closures outside of the control of the Board of Management.
- Eight weeks' notice must be given in writing when a student is being withdrawn from school prior to the completion of Sixth Year. If the required notice is not received, a full term's fees are payable.
- Deposits are not refundable where a student is withdrawn or expelled from school.
- Interest will be charged on overdue accounts.
- It is school policy that any extra Junior Cycle / Leaving Certificate tuition (grinds) provided on site at the school must be delivered by teachers employed by Glenstal Abbey School. Requests for this type of provision must be submitted to the Deputy Principal. Tuition is charged to the student's expense account. Teachers must not be paid directly.
- The school will charge the Parent/Guardian for the full replacement cost of any items of property damaged or broken by the student, including the cost of labour, regardless of whether that labour is supplied by employees of the school or supplied by external professionals.
- Any failure or delay by the school in enforcing or partially enforcing its rights under these Terms & Conditions shall not be constituted as a waiver of any of its rights hereunder.
- Nothing in these Terms & Conditions affects the statutory rights of the Parent/Guardian.
- These Terms & Conditions are governed by the laws of Ireland and the parties submit to the jurisdiction of the Irish courts.
- The School reserves the right to make reasonable changes to these Terms & Conditions from time to time.
